What's new:

McCusker Rachel is one of four women who shared their outfits for the Summer Breeze launch at the annual show in London. For the event's press release, see the July 5, 2005 DVF magazine (page 12). Fiber Guy with Rachel McCusker We worked with Rachel on the Lookbook for Spring to Summer 06. Rachel is a real pleasure to work with, and we are super excited about the campaign!! This interview will provide the EXCLUSIVE lowdown on the new Rachel McCusker Look Book... What do you want to know about Rachel? Hers is a girl who's really taken to international clientele. She came from the States with a career diary crammed full of boundaries. Eventually she arrived in London and established herself and is now really experienced with fashion. She's comfortable with all kinds of design-led post-youthwear. Rachel McCusker's DVF Booth (top) Our personal relationship with Rachel began when she over seasided on a photoshoot. I think she'd heard about the lookbook launch from recent posts on the Internet, but she didn't know that it was a reality. We finally met with her at the DVF Booth in London's Century City. When I did the workshop, I looked out through the window at this glamorous building. Seeing all the glamour came out of me. We were entering through the swing doors but Rachel was waiting for me. She was wearing an evening gown with a tank top and a silver veil tied in a knot at her shoulders. She said "My name is Rachel, I run a website. Is it fair to say that you are psychologically in control here? Her strength was strong! When we arrived in the conference room, she looked at my screen and saw that we had one whole brand new look all set up. Rachel McCusker I have always said that stylists are like surgeons with scopes—we are able to see an entire picture, and we aren't affected by the furniture and light. I remember her first look, and she came to me with one of the most striking creative shows. Rachel taking interest in DVF's trends! She was so

You are an artist in need of a project that gives you the freedom to learn and play. VESTIGE is a room-scale VR experience that uses multi-narrative and volumetric live capture to take the viewer on a journey into the mind of Lisa as she remembers her lost love, Erik. Within an empty void, fragments of past memories appear of their life together. As we navigate the space to explore these moments, new memories are triggered revealing new pathways through the story. Over time the memories become entangled with a haunting vision and eventually lead us to the shocking moment of Erik's death. Every viewing will reveal a different journey towards this moment, revealing the complex world of memory and grief. As you interact with the space, you take control and move through memories. These are the moments that Lisa still lives with. You will follow her through these moments and never look away. You will experience Erik's final moments from Lisa's point of view. You will follow her into all of the new connections she makes with the moment. You will step into a powerful place of healing and catharsis. You will learn to express yourself artistically in multiple styles. You will learn to express yourself through a set of tools that moves outside of your comfort zone, and into new spaces and new memories. You will explore the complex and layered relationships that exist between how you look at your life and how you feel about it. You will share your work with the world, just as Lisa did. You will step outside of yourself and into the world. You will go through the pain and try to find the joy. You will embrace the beautiful and learn to accept the ugly. This is a project created to support and nurture this artist in you. - You will experience
